Some years ago when television was taking the country by storm, there were dire predictions about what the new generation growing up on television would be like.

It can now be reported that persons between the ages of 14 and 25, the first generation to have grown up with television, use daily newspapers for news and information almost as much as their elders, a survey released by the Bureau of Advertising of the American Newspaper Publishers Association reveals.

The bureau based its assessment on a new study of media habits and attitudes, conducted by the Gilbert Youth Research. The study samples a national cross-section of more than 1,600 persons between the ages of 14 and 25.

The survey found that 73 percent of all 14 and 25 years olds read one or more daily newspapers on the average weekday as compared to 78 percent of all adults.

Other findings of the survey: The young spend almost as much time as adults with each newspaper and absorb advertising as well as editorial content; as they grow up they read newspapers more, watch television less; more responsible and mature young people are most likely to read the newspaper on a given day.

Dr. Leo Bogart, executive vice president and general manager of the bureau, said, "Our study shows that the same dynamism, the same high level of aspiration that has motivated Americans is still visible in the young people today." He said the study reaffirmed that "the more highly educated, the doers and achievers have always shown the greatest orientation to the printed word." Palestine (Tex.) Herald-Press

Murfreesboro Man One of 2 Crash Victims

HOT SPRINGS, Ark. (AP)—Arkansas County officials tentatively identified the victims of plane crash here Wednesday as Olvy M. Womack of Murfreesboro and Clinton Kurch of Osceola.

Their ages were not available. The converted P51 World War I airplane crashed shortly after takeoff at Municipal Field airport here killing the pilot and a passenger.

Witnesses said they saw smoke billow up from the engine and heard it sputter before it smashed into the runway.

Firemen quickly extinguished flames that erupted from the wreckage.

Wants to Get State in on Railpax Route

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. W. Fulbright, D-Ark., said Wednesday that he would work to get Arkansas included in the national railroad system now at the Senate has voted to alt spending the supersonic transport (SST).

Fulbright, an outspoken critic of the SST, said he was very pleased on the Senate's action. "It is ironic that we could even consider pouring out public funds for development of a luxurious plane when we cannot provide railroad passenger service for people in Arkansas and many other sections of the country," Fulbright said. The National Railroad Passenger Corp. (Railpax) announced plans Monday for a two-car passenger service in the country but Arkansas was not included.

Democrats Trying to Soothe Labor

WASHINGTON (AP) — Democratic presidential prospects are moving to soothe the organized labor after spurning union pleas to rescue the supersonic-transport airplane for the sake of jobs.

The Senate spurned the SST subsidy in a Wednesday vote that dented President Nixon's hopes of new support from freshmen Republicans and conservative Democrats in the 92nd Congress.

Nixon used some personal persuasion in a campaign that gave opponents of the federally subsidized airplane project some uneasy moments. But the administration lost, 51 to 46.

The AFL-CIO had joined the aircraft industry in lobbying for the project, arguing rejection would cost jobs. Despite that effort, Democrats involved in early presidential maneuvering voted, with one expected exception, to end federal support.

Sen. Hubert H. Humphrey of Minnesota, who at one point was reported wavering on the SST, cast his vote against the project, as did Sens. Edmund S. Muskie of Maine, George McGovern of South Dakota, and Harold E. Hughes of Iowa.

Sen. Birch Bayh of Indiana would have, too, but he missed the vote because of a snowstorm in Colorado where he had been skiing.

The issue of jobs and unemployment is not gone, and it was on that front that Democrats acted to ease the impact of votes against a project backed by labor.

Humphrey, for example, said he was prepared to ask the Senate to vote funds equal to those sought for the SST "to relieve the distress of workers affected, and to attempt to channel their skills and initiative into new jobs truly related to the national welfare."

Bayh introduced a resolution urging the government to consider how future programs in other fields, such as mass transportation, housing and environmental projects, can be allocated "so as to use the talents of the present SST work force."

$1.3 Million for Housing

WASHINGTON (AP) — Rep. Bill Alexander, D-Ark., announced Wednesday that the Department of Housing and Urban Development had approved a $1,332,194 grant to the Pocahontas Housing Authority.

The funds are to be used for construction of 80 low-rent dwelling units, including 30 for the elderly.

Choosing Job Depends on Your Temperament and Fringe Benefits

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK (AP) — Jobs of almost every kind are getting harder to find.

But if you could choose, what would you consider the ideal job?

It would depend, of course on your temperament and the fringe benefits it provided. But here is a list of possible jobs that most people would find it difficult to turn down:

Wardrobe designer for a nude Broadway musical.

Overnight janitor in a brewer's factory.

Senate Completes the SST Burial After a Decade of Spending

By LAWRENCE L. KNUTSON
Associated Press Writer

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Senate has completed the congressional burial of the supersonic transport in a vote that halted nearly a decade of federal SST spending and ignored the pleas of President Nixon,

Europeans Boosted by SST Defeat

LONDON (AP) — Some British commentators today viewed the congressional rejection of the American supersonic transport as a boost for the British-French Concorde. Others think it gives the Concorde's opponents fresh ammunition and hope.

Robert Holtz, editor of Aviation Week, said the U.S. Senate decision Wednesday to cut off government funds for the SST "gives Concorde a head, shoulders and chest start."

"Unless something goes seriously wrong, it should have people lining up with orders for the rest of the decade," Holtz told the Daily Express.

But David Fairhall, aviation correspondent of the Guardian, said cancellation of the American project could jeopardize the Concorde's chances for survival.

He said the British-French plane must overcome the hurdles on which the Boeing project fell: political resistance to spending vast sums on an airliner that benefits only a minority, the reluctance of major airlines to place firm orders and the powerful transatlantic pollution lobby.

The cutoff of the eight-year-old American project left the Concorde and the Soviet TU144 in the supersonic jet field. The Russians, who don't have to worry about complaints from ecology-minded members of the public or showing a profit, are going ahead full speed. But the British and French governments still have not given the final green light. Representatives of the two governments are to discuss the matter at a meeting April 22.

The TU-144 was first in the air, on Dec. 31, 1968. It also is expected to be first in service, probably next year over the 4,000-mile route between Moscow and Khabarovsk. The Concorde, whose development costs have doubled from original estimates, was scheduled to start commercial flights in 1970, but that date has been put back to 1974. It was flown first in 1969.

Publishers Act to Meet Postage Hike

By JOHN HENRY

AP Business Writer

NEW YORK (AP) — A proposed 142 per cent increase in mailing costs for magazines and newspapers is prompting publishers to raise subscription prices, cut page size and study alternate means of delivery.

"I'm considering every alternative to the U.S. Post Office from newsboys to milkmen to large dogs with dry mouths," says John Mack Carter, editor of the Ladies' Home Journal.

Mail delivery costs now account for about 5 per cent of the total cost of the average magazine, according to the Magazine Publishers Association.

The proposed rate boost, which would be made in stages over the next five years, would raise mailing costs for magazines and newspapers from an average of 2.4 per cent per copy to slightly under 6 cents at the end of the period, the association says.

And the increase could drive some marginally profitable magazines out of business, the association claims.

Reader's Digest, which in Britain distributes more than 50 per cent of its magazines outside the postal system, is reviewing alternate delivery systems here. The magazine says it expects a $1.4 million jump in magazine delivery costs in the first year of the proposed rates if it uses only the Post Office.

Some magazines are now using multiple mailing points as a way to cut existing postage costs.

Thus, if a magazine is printed in Chicago, it might be trucked in bulk to Cleveland, Denver and Memphis for mailing at post offices in those cities.

Such a practice reduces mailing distances and saves postage, magazines say.

Esquire met its increasing postal cost problem by reducing its page size more than 30 per cent to dimensions of the newsweeklies and boosting subscription prices 13 per cent.

McCall's and Holiday also have trimmed their publications to the smaller size.

"If you can reduce weight 5 per cent, postage will go down 5 per cent," says David G. Jensen, vice president of manufacturing for McGraw-Hill, the giant business magazine publishers.

Week is now being printed on less heavy stock than five years ago.

55 GIs Die in Action Last Week

SAIGON (AP) — The number of North Vietnamese and Viet Cong killed in the Indochina war increased more than 1,600 last week, the allied commands reported today. American casualties also increased, while those of the South Vietnamese decreased slightly.

The commands reported 5,750 of the enemy killed, compared with a revised toll of 4,118 for the previous week. The U.S. Command said this raised to 723,318 the number of North Vietnamese and Viet Cong killed since Jan. 1, 1961.

U.S. headquarters said 55 Americans were killed in action last week and 335 were wounded; the figures for the week before were 45 killed and 156 wounded.

Another 29 Americans died from nonhostile causes last week.

Total American combat casualties for the war now are put at 44,730 killed and 296,369 wounded. Another 1,492 Americans are listed as missing or captured, while nonhostile deaths total 9,364.

South Vietnamese headquarters reported that 630 government troops were killed and 1,760 were wounded last week, compared with 773 killed and 1,981 wounded in the previous week. Another 76 were reported missing in action last week. This pushed announced South Vietnamese military casualties in the war to 123,394 killed and 266,353 wounded.

Final Date to Sign for Grain Program

According to Cecil F. Guthrie, County Executive Director of Hempstead County ASCS, the final date for feed grain, cotton and wheat farmers to sign their intentions to participate in each of the programs is April 9, 1971.

Any producer who has an upland cotton or wheat allotment or feed grain base is eligible to participate. The benefits derived from participation in these programs are price support payments and loans. The two principal requirements required for participation is a set-aside acreage of 20 percent of the farm base and or allotment and maintenance of the conserving base established for the farm. The set-aside acreage must not be harvested during 1971 nor grazed during the period May 1 to October 1.

Other dates of importance to Hempstead county farmers are as follows:

1. Final date for transferring cotton allotments by sale, lease or owner transfer is April 9, 1971.

2. Final date to release or request released cotton allotments is April 9, 1971.

For complete information farmers are urged to contact the local ASCS Office located in The Federal Building in Hope prior to the final dates referred to above.

Snow, Sleet, Hail, Rain Hits State

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Winter, supposedly in its dying throes, revived today and dumped more than four inches of snow in the Jonesboro area.

Arkansans awoke to almost every type of foul weather imaginable—rain, snow, sleet, hail, thunder and lightning.

Hail was reported in many areas. Early risers in Little Rock were greeted with an accumulation of hail, that gave the appearance of coarse snow.

The National Weather Service issued a tornado watch for Southeast Arkansas until 6 p.m. tonight.

State Police issued warnings to motorists as all points were reporting slick and wet roads. Those areas north of Little Rock were also reporting sleet and ice-covered bridges.

Withdrawal From Laos Before Rains Leaves Pentagon Disappointed

By FRED S. HOFFMAN
AP Military Writer

WASHINGTON (AP) — They won't say it publicly, but Pentagon officials and senior military officers are deeply disappointed the South Vietnamese withdrew from Laos before the onset of the heavy rains.

Defense sources said high-ranking officers in the U.S. command in Saigon and the top-level joint military staff here wanted South Vietnamese to reinforce its troops in Laos and slug it out with the North Vietnamese.

As recently as last week, sources predicted privately South Vietnamese troops would remain in Laos until mid-April, digging out supply caches and disrupting truck movements on the Ho Chi Minh trail. The heavy rains are expected about the beginning of May.

Although the basic plan called for South Vietnamese soldiers to advance as far as Sepone, about 25 miles inside Laos, there was an option to extend the operation.

This involved driving along See Withdrawal (on Page two)

Money Bills Passed by Legislature

By ROBERT SHAW

Associated Press Writer

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Hopeful of final adjournment of the legislature by next midweek, the Arkansas House stepped up the pace of the session-ending task of approving appropriation bills Wednesday.

The representatives passed about 70 money bills, including Gov. Dale Bumpers' request for $11,996,895 for construction by the state-supported colleges and universities. That bill, passed earlier by the Senate, was approved by the House 86-0 and was sent to Bumpers for his signature. Most of the other appropriation measures were minor.

The college and university appropriation only sets the maximum that can be spent and does not assure that all the money will be made available. The revenue stabilization act, which is to be considered next week, will determine how much of the appropriation actually will be distributed.

As the House worked on appropriation matters, Rep. B. D. "Doug" Brandon of Little Rock, co-chairman of the legislative Joint Budget Committee, told

Casualties in Laos Drive at 10,000

By GEORGE ESFER

Associated Press Writer

SAIGON (AP) — The 45-day campaign in Laos cost the South Vietnamese nearly 10,000 casualties or almost 50 per cent of the total force committed, highly placed military sources said today.

The sources said 3,800 South Vietnamese troops were killed, 775 missing and 5,200 wounded, nearly double what the Saigon government has reported.

These sources said the communiques from South Vietnamese headquarters being given to newsmen are lagging or are deliberately not reporting the true losses.

The latest official figures list 1,146 troops killed, 245 missing and 4,235 wounded.

At the same time, South Vietnamese headquarters is reporting nearly 14,000 North Vietnamese troops killed. A large proportion of these are credited to U.S. bombers and helicopter gunships, but the U.S. Command in a report last Saturday said "cumulative results of U.S. air operations in support of the South Vietnamese . . . indicate 3,600 enemy troops reported killed by air."

The American command said the tabulation was based on reports from air crews, forward air controllers and South Vietnamese forces.

Lt. Col. Do Viet, an official spokesman, announced that the last of the 22,000 South Vietnamese troops who invaded Laos had returned to South Vietnam.

But Associated Press correspondent Michael Pitzel reported from the front that South Vietnamese marines were ordered back to the Co Roc ridge just inside Laos this afternoon to prevent the enemy from using it to shell allied bases on the Vietnamese side of the border.

The marines had been pulled off the ridge earlier while U.S. B52 bombers pounded the area. Then they were ordered back. But the North Vietnamese fired a 20-round artillery barrage at the South Vietnamese forward command post at Ham Nghi, and U.S. officers said the rounds came from Co Roc. There was no report of casualties or damage.

On the battlefields, U.S. fighter-bombers and rocket-firing helicopter gunships exchanged fire Wednesday with a column of 24 North Vietnamese tanks trying to upset the pullback of South Vietnamese and American forces away from the border to rear bases.

The command reported eight Americans killed and 12 wounded in other actions in the northwest corner of South Vietnam. The casualties occurred in three helicopters shot down, two small ground attacks, an ambush and two shelling attacks.

The U.S. Command said a total of 92 American helicopters now have been lost in the campaign, with 66 Americans killed, 28 missing and 79 wounded.

routes leading southeastward from Sepon through a major enemy supply base area and back into South Vietnam via the A Shau valley. Exercising the option would have kept Saigon's troops in Laos for weeks longer.

Defense sources indicate U.S. officials publicly would have approved a South Vietnamese request for continued air support beyond the eight-week time limit the Pentagon says was set by President Nguyen Van Thieu for the basic operation.

Some U.S. generals regarded the concentration of North Vietnamese troops in Laos as an opportunity to inflict heavy losses.

But when the North Vietnamese counterattacked in force the South Vietnamese command ordered its troops to head straight back into home territory.

Defense officials say Thieu is concerned chiefly with preserving his military strength for security inside South Vietnam, particularly with a re-election campaign ahead.

These officials indicated the American troop withdrawal has reached a point where the United States is finding limits to the pressure it can bring to bear on Thieu to follow U.S. wishes.

Money for Dental Health Approved

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Gov. Dale Bumpers has agreed on requests for spending above what the administration has proposed, but the Senate later approved bills setting maximum levels in two cases that were greater than his recommendation.

The Senate approved 28-2 a bill by Sen. Jim Fowler of Little Rock to appropriate an additional $63,616 in fiscal 1971-72 for the Bureau of Dental Health and voted 27-1 for a bill to appropriate an additional $1.5 million for municipal aid in 1971-72.

The governor told the committee he opposed Fowler's bill and requested that the municipal aid increase be kept to $1.2 million or less.

Bumpers' appearance before the committee Wednesday was one of several he has made because of his concern that the state will have no money for construction projects as a result of piecemeal allocation of the funds to other needs.

He urged that resistance be offered to the efforts to preserve a construction program.

In other action, the committee approved bills to set up a contingency fund of $500,000 in each of the next two fiscal years for colleges and universities and to raise college tuition $50 per semester.

The tuition proposal is in line with Bumpers' request for the

President Distressed at Action

By FRANK CORMIER
Associated Press Writer
WASHINGTON (AP) — President Nixon is distressed but seems almost philosophical about congressional scuttling of the SST. That's a bit different than the last time he staked his prestige, and lost, on Capitol Hill.

The Senate's 51-46 vote Wednesday to cut off federal financing for two prototypes of the supersonic transport was a blow to the administration. Especially because Nixon had let it be known in advance that he had huddled privately with at least five uncommitted senators.

And he did other things, such as signing a paper formally rescinding closure of the Navy yard in Portsmouth, N.H., just across the border from a populous section of Maine. Sen. Margaret Chase Smith, R-Maine, happily announced this action, then voted against SST.

So did three of the five senators listed by the White House as having visited Nixon privately.

The last time Nixon made a publicly visible major effort to sway congressional votes on a prime issue was last year in an effort to get Florida's G. Harold Carswell a seat on the Supreme Court.

When he lost, Nixon accused the Senate majority of sectional bigotry and said "I cannot successfully nominate to the Supreme Court any federal appellate judge from the South who believes, as I do, in the strict construction of the Constitution."

After losing on SST in both houses of the Democratic-controlled Congress—and with the 1972 presidential election 10 months closer than when Carswell was turned down—Nixon said:

"Today's action by the Senate in disapproving funds for continued development of the supersonic transport prototypes is both distressing and disappointing... more deeply, it could be taken as a reversal of America's tradition of staying in the vanguard of scientific and technological advance."

The closest he came to lowering the boom on Congress was this:

"Though the Congress has declined to continue helping fund this development, I shall strive to ensure that the tradition is maintained."

BRENDA REESE

MAGNOLIA—Brenda Reese, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bryan Reese of Rt. 1 Hope, has been awarded an academic scholarship to Southern State College for 1971-72, according to financial aids director Benard Polk.

The $300 honor scholar ships are donated by individuals or business firms in the Southern State area for outstanding Arkansas high school graduates scoring high in national college tests and recommended by their teachers, and are renewable if the student maintains a B average or above in college studies.

Miss Reese, who is a senior at Spring Hill High School and is valedictorian of her class, plans to major in computer science at Southern State College, Polk said.

Television and Radio

By CYNTHIA LOWRY
AP Television-Radio Writer
NEW YORK (AP) — "Jane Eyre," Charlotte Bronte's Victorian classic melodrama, was adapted into an exciting, elegant and beautifully acted soap opera seen Wednesday night on NBC.

The two-hour special, filmed in a stately English home and on the windswept moors, seemed to be utterly faithful to the novel written more than 100 years ago. It was full of formal phrases and full-blown dialogue, and there was certainly enough plot to keep a daytime serial going for a couple of years.

In less skillful hands, it might have been a campy disaster, but with Delbert Mann directing and George C. Scott and Susanah York in the central roles, it came off handsomely.

After a slow beginning the program took off when a grown up Jane Eyre arrived at Thornfield Hall to become governess to Edward Rochester's French ward. Miss York as Jane was not as plain as the dialogue suggested. Scott, as the moody, intense Mr. Rochester, was perfect.

There were all sorts of mysterious goings-on—a fire that almost burned up Mr. Rochester, eerie laughter echoing down a midnight hall.

Many lines seemed ludicrous and at times the characters appeared to be motivated strangely. It never was quite clear why Mr. Rochester, his mad wife locked in the attic of his manor house, decided to a formal bigamous wedding to Jane.

At any rate, the show was great fun. The interiors and the exteriors were great. The cast had just the right spirit. And a good time was had by all—the all the women who saw it anyway.

ABC's summer plans are for all except four programs to be reruns.

"The Reel Game," which had its premiere last month, will be replaced by "It Was a Very Good Year," a half-hour show starring Mel Torme which will evoke the memories and moods of the 1920s and 1930s with songs, newsreel clips and old-timers as guests.

Pearl Bailey, after a brief visit to televisionland, will be replaced on Saturday nights by Val Doonican, a British entertainer.

"The Johnny Cash Show" and "The Young Lawyers" also will vanish. In their place on Wednesdays will come "Love on a Rooftop," a series made several seasons back starring Judy Carne—before "Laugh-In"—and Peter Duel; reruns of "The Immortal," knocked off by ABC at midseason; plus a half hour of filmed highlights for last season's National Football League games.

All changes occur early in May except the Doonican show which starts in June.

Says System of Retirement May Be Unsound

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Gov. Dale Bumpers said Wednesday there was a possibility that the various state retirement systems might become actuarially unsound, forcing the state to pick up the tab to make them sound again.

Bumpers said he had signed between 40 and 50 retirement bills affecting the six retirement programs during this session of the legislature. He expressed fear that the number of changes made in the programs would make the retirement systems unsound.

The governor told the Arkansas Association of Development Districts that the systems should be consolidated into one program.

Following his speech, Bumpers told newsmen that he was unhappy because prison legislation was being blocked. House members have expressed opposition to prison legislation as long as C. Robert Sarver is Correction Commissioner.

Hats Get the Jump on Spring

These are some of designer Frank Olive's interpretations of the mood for spring 1971. The gingham fedora (upper left) is trimmed with a candy-box rose and has a matching scarf. The Beau Brummel style (upper right) sports a cavalier plume. Padre Leghorn (lower left) has trim of field flowers. Renoir fedora (lower right) is in Milanlike straw, draped in chiffon and lily-of-the-valley buds.

TOE-STEPPER ISN'T TWO-TIMER

Dear Helen:
I took my girl friend to a party the other night. I am a clod on the dance floor and she lets me know about it, so I waited till the third dance to ask her. Then she said "No." Later on I asked her again, but she danced off with another guy.

So another girl saw how it was, and we ended up dancing together all evening.

Next day my girl friend called me a two-timer. What would you say? —THREE-FOOTED SLOUCH

Dear TFS:
I'd say live up to the label and give the other girl a buzz. A girl who makes you feel three-footed deserves being two-timed. —H.

Dear Helen:
I have a sort of full chin, though I'm skinny. This condition runs in my family—and turns into saggy jowls as we get older.

I'd like to avoid this, and I wonder if "singing" exercises would help. You see, I've been studying older singers on television and they hardly ever have "loose" necks and chins, even when they're over 50.

Are chin, mouth and neck exercises the secret? —DOUBLECHIN AT 18

Dear Double:
I'm sure they help, but don't discount plastic surgery. Over-50 performers seldom rely on exercise alone to keep their faces in shape.

Why not find a book on facial exercises at the library and start early? In 25 years, you'll know how their claims hold up—and then you can write your own book, from personal experience. —H.

Dear Helen:
Some of us girls were talking about cigarettes. We all agreed we don't like smokers' kisses, but there were other interesting observations too. Like:

Pipe breath is worse than cigarette breath, and cigar breath is worst of all.

But most girls prefer guys who smoke pipes if they MUST smoke, because they are considerate and don't come on too

By HELEN HENNESSY
NEA Women's Editor

NEW YORK — (NEA) — Millinery designer Frank Olive is a big, handsome fellow with eyes that twinkle and a swashbuckling beard. And he has two assets that are invisible—antennae that catch the mood of women and the creative ability to give them what they want.

Here's what he feels about the fashion mood for spring-summer '71. He has interpreted his thinking in his latest collection.

"Spring '71 is a return to the romantic," said Olive. "Gone are the militant '60s—tough chic, hard leather studded with nailheads. The defiance and rebellion have given way to the more tranquil times of yesterday."

Fashion this spring is a renaissance of femininity, according to Frank. And the moods are many. The longer hemlines are enhanced by larger hat brims.

This designer makes his fashion statement in Cromwell brims and fedoras and over-sized portrait brims (influenced by "Death in Venice") with roses and tulle.

"The more fluid lines of fashion," said Olive, "are topped with a larger brimmed Renoir fedora in Milanlike straw and softened with a drape of chiffon and lily-of-the-valley buds."

For spring's sometimes inclement weather capes are wrapping the shoulders topped with a padre of Leghorn straw wreathed in field flowers and spiked with a yellow rose.

The canvas and denim world finds visor caps and Beau Brummel brims either in an Americana version or in rough textured straw ideal for the sportive attitude.

"Our gentler moods," Frank continued, "find a softening in color hues as well as texture—sometimes in printemps green or lavender organza. There's also a gingham fedora with a candy box rose and its own silk scarf."

This spring provides a certain amount of drama the designer says. It turns up in cavalier ostrich plumes. And there is, too, the return to the innocence of gossamer gauzes.

"One of these," said Frank, "may help you to catch your dream."

Rain Could Hurt First Home Meet

By BILL MOORE
Star Sports Writer

Provided there is good weather today, Hope High School will entertain various schools in their first home track meet of the year immediately after school.

Some teams included are Magnolia, Mineral Springs, Fouke, and Saratoga with two or three others expected to come. HHS should place well in the meet with various running events and a couple of field events.

Some of the most interesting events will be the hurdles, relay teams, and the broad jump.

The track meet at Smackover on Wednesday was cancelled, and now, looking forward, Hope travels to DeQueen on Saturday, for the Leopard Relays.

Alcindor Adds Scoring Title to Honors

NEW YORK (AP) — Lew Alcindor, Milwaukee's 7-foot-2 dominating giant, added the scoring championship to his Most Valuable Player award in the National Basketball Association's final regular season statistics released today.

Alcindor, voted the MVP last week, averaged 31.7 points a game, scoring 2,596 points in 82 games as he led the Bucks to the Midwest Division title.

John Havlicek of Boston was second with a 28.9 average and Elvin Hayes of San Diego third at 28.7.

The field goal percentage title went to Cincinnati's Johnny Green, who hit 58.7 per cent of his field goal tries to Alcindor's 57.7.

Wilt Chamberlain of Los Angeles won his ninth rebounding title with 1,493 for an average of 18.2 per contest. Chet Walker of Chicago was the best free throw shooter for the first time, making 85.9 per cent.

The assist leader was Norm Van Lier of Cincinnati with 832, or 10.1 a game.

Thinks Soviet Team in for Rough Time

By JOHN FARROW
BERN, Switzerland (AP) — "Now the Soviets are running into the tough period" said American ice hockey coach Murray Williamson today.

"The Czechs gave them a fright. And tomorrow the Swedes might do the same."

Williamson maintained that the championship still was wide open with several teams still capable of upsetting the Soviets who are chasing their ninth straight world crown.

The Soviet Union heads the standings with seven points from three victories and one tied game. They have scored 32 goals against eight.

Sweden also has seven points from four matches—three wins and one tied match. But the Swedes trail in second place on the goal count. They have scored only 18 against 10.

Finland, who held the Swedes to a 1-1 tie Wednesday night, is in third spot with five points from four matches. The Czechs, who held the Soviets to 3-3 tie in a game charged with emotion, is in fourth place with three points.

The United States, troubled by injuries to goal tenders Carl Wenzel, Detroit, Mike Curran, International Falls, Minn., and Dave Patrick, St. Louis, and goalie Paul Babin, St. Paul, had one point from one match. Wenzel was at the head of the line with 10 points through four matches.

There is only one match to go in the tournament, and the United States is in the bottom position.

Kansas Coach Has Plan to Beat Bruins

By MICHAEL A. LUTZ
Associated Press Sports Writer

HOUSTON, Tex. (AP) — Kansas basketball coach Ted Owens has a formula for doing what no other team has been able to do in six of the past NCAA championship tournaments—defeat defending champion UCLA.

"There are three basic things we need to do to beat UCLA," Owens said. "First, we need to try to keep them from getting their second and third shot."

"Second, we need to defeat their press. And, third, on offense, we need to hit a good percentage of our shots."

It sounds simple enough. But the midwest champion Jayhawks, who have a 21-game winning streak and a 27-1 record, are heavy underdogs against the Bruins, who are aiming for their fifth straight NCAA crown.

UCLA, fueled by All-American Sidney Wicks and Curtis Rows, are expected to gain the finals berth in the second game at 8:40 p.m. CST tonight while Western Kentucky, with 7-foot All-American Jim McDaniels, is favored to earn a finals spot in its semifinals match with Villanova at 6:40 p.m. CST.

The championship game is scheduled Saturday.

Western Kentucky head coach Johnny Oldham said he would put his standout defensive specialist Clarence Glover on Villanova's high scoring Howard Porter.

The Western Kentucky-Villanova game could be a run and shoot affair.

Villanova coach Jack Kraft shuns all favorite and underdog labels. "The teams that puts two games together is going to be the winner," Kraft said.

Villanova, the eastern champion, powered its way into the championship tournament with a 90-47 victory over Pennsylvania.

The Wildcats, 26-6, will suit up only nine players for the game. Their depth problem was evident Wednesday when they suited up the manager to scrimmage in their only practice in the Astrodome.

"Don't let our numbers fool you," Kraft said. "We suited up two managers and one publicity man to practice today." The Wildcats were riddled by early injuries.

Western Kentucky's attack centers around McDaniels who leads all scorers in the tournament with a 29.2 average. Glover is averaging only 7.4 points but has been tremendous on defense.

Lonborg at Crossroads of Career

WINTER HAVEN, Fla. (AP) — Jim Lonborg, who pitched the Boston Red Sox to the American League pennant just four years ago, is at the crossroads. His career is in jeopardy.

The tall right-hander, who will be 28 on April 16, just 10 days after the start of the championship race, may be washed up at an age when most athletes are in their prime.

Time is running out on Lonborg in his bid to regain a starting job with the Red Sox. He will get one more shot to prove he belongs. There will be no tomorrow. It's produce or get out.

Lonborg was ineffective in his fourth pre-season appearance Wednesday, surrendering six runs on seven hits and two walks in a 9-5 loss to the New York Yankees. He threw 82 pitches in the abbreviated four-inning effort.

"I saw nothing encouraging," Boston manager Eddie Kasko said.

Lonborg's troubles began after he won 22 games and added two World Series in 1967. He suffered a serious knee injury while skiing in December of that year, just after signing a new contract for a reported $50,000.

Lonborg has been the victim of a series of injuries and arm trouble ever since. He was impressive in spring training in 1969 but then was sidelined with a shoulder problem. He did not pitch in the season between the Red Sox and the International League and the dis-

Rockets Hit But Neumann Scores Better

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

The Memphis Pros had six players in double figures against the Denver Rockets but Johnny Neumann hit seven figures at halftime with the stroke of a pen.

The Pros dispatched the Rockets 132-118 Wednesday night in an American Basketball Association game, but the real highlight in Memphis was the intermission contract signing ceremonies for Mississippi's sophomore star who reportedly got a 5-year contract for $2 million.

Charles Cavagnaro, general manager of the Pros, presented Neumann with a red, white and blue ABA basketball, no doubt hoping he will average 40.1 points for Memphis as he did for Ole Miss.

In game action, Memphis got a 12-point lead early and Denver was able to close the gap to only eight after the first quarter.

Wendell Ladner and Charlie Williams each scored 25 points for the Pros while Jimmy Jones hit 24. Ralph Simpson got

Sox Finally Cool Off Cardenal

By HAL BOCK
Associated Press Sports Writer

The Chicago White Sox needed a little while to do it but they finally came up with a way to cool off red-hot Jose Cardenal.

Cardenal had strung three straight hits together in St. Louis' 3-2 victory over the Sox on Wednesday after coming into the game with a streak of four hits in Tuesday's game against Cincinnati.

That gave the speedy outfielder seven hits in a row—a streak the Sox halted the easy way. They used the old intentional walk ploy on the Cardinals' Cardenal.

Forced to look at four wide pitches, Cardenal did not manage an eighth straight hit. He only walked.

Elsewhere in exhibition baseball Wednesday, it was Cincinnati 8, Houston 4; Kansas City 6, Minnesota 3; Detroit 7, Baltimore 2; Montreal 6, Atlanta 2; Pittsburgh 9, Philadelphia 2; the New York Yankees 9, Boston 5; Cleveland 7, the Chicago Cubs 2; San Francisco 10, Oakland 7; and California 2, Salt Lake City of the Pacific Coast League 0.

Hal McRae and Tommy Helms ripped three hits each and Milt Wilcox fired seven shutout innings as Cincinnati rapped Houston. McRae drove in three runs with two singles and a double, as the Reds strafed Astro ace Larry Dierker for seven runs.

Dick Drago went seven innings for Kansas City, allowing Minnesota just four hits as the Royals trimmed the Twins. KC collected 10 hits with Fred Patek, Amos Otis, Gail Hopkins and Cookie Rojas getting two each.

Al Kaline reached Baltimore ace Dave McNally for a three-run homer and Detroit dropped the Orioles. Kaline's shot and a two-run double by Ed Brinkman were the big hits, for the Tigers. Boog Powell homered for Baltimore.

Carl Morton pitched a four-hit complete game for Montreal against Atlanta and the Expos got home run punch from Mack Jones and Ron Fairly. Morton also had an RBI single for the Expos.

Tom Murphy allowed three hits in seven innings and struck out eight as California blanked Salt Lake City. The Angels scored both their runs on errors.

Richie Allen had four hits including a double and triple and drove in two runs as the Dodgers whipped Washington. Bill Buckner's two-run triple delivered LA's winning runs in the seventh inning.

Dave Cash had four hits and Bob Robertson tagged a three-run homer as Pittsburgh routed Philadelphia. John Briggs homered for the Phils.

Bobby Murcer drove in four runs and Murcer and Thurman Munson both tagged homers for New York against Boston. The Yanks bunched five hits for four runs against Jim Lonborg in the first inning.

Cleveland rapped Ken Holtzman for six runs in the first inning and went on to rout the Cubs. The runs ended a 17-inning scoreless streak for Chicago pitchers.

Homers by Willie McCovey and Bobby Bonds led San Francisco past Oakland.

24 for the Rockets and Larry Cannon 22.

In the only other ABA game scheduled, John Brisker scored 37 points and George Thompson 29 to lead the Pittsburgh Condors to a 149-131 victory over the Kentucky Colonels.

The teams matched scores 14 times as the lead changed hands 13 times before Thompson made three straight field goals in the third quarter.

Dan Issel and Louie Dampier each scored 27 points to lead the Colonels.

Plays With Riderettes

BETTY MCNIEL

MAGNOLIA—Former Spring Hill High School star Betty McNeil is a member of the 1971 Southern State Riderettes, recently crowned Arkansas Women's Extramural Sports Association state champions.

Miss McNeil is an outstanding rebounder and one of the leading scorers on the team, according to coach Margaret Downing. "She scored in double figures in all of our state games which made the difference in the outcome of the state tournament," Miss Downing said.

A senior at SSC this year, Miss McNeil is a physical education major. She is also a member of the Association of Women Students and the Women's Recreation Association.

The daughter of Mr. and Mrs. T. C. McNeil of Rt. 1 Hope, she is a 1967 graduate of Spring Hill High School.

Stan Ley Bats Porkers Over St. Cloud

FAYETTEVILLE, Ark. (AP) — Stan Ley doubled, tripled and slammed a two-run homer to spark a 12-hit Arkansas attack as the Razorbacks nipped St. Cloud State, Minn., 8-7 in baseball action here Wednesday.

Farrel Vincent hured 2 1-3 innings of perfect relief and drove in the winning run in the eighth inning to secure the victory.

Vincent is now 1-2 for the season, and loser Steve Fuchs dropped to 1-1. Both teams are 3-4 for the season.

Hog Mentor Named Swim Coach of Year

AMES, Ia. (AP) — Ed Fedosky, University of Arkansas swimming coach, has been named Coach of the Year in NCAA District Four.

The announcement was made Wednesday night at the College Swimming Coaches Association of America banquet.

Fedosky joined the Arkansas staff in 1968.

Apple Jack Disqualified at Oaklawn

HOT SPRINGS, Ark. (AP) — Dervish Dancer was declared the winner of Wednesday's $12,500 Oaklawn Preview for two-year-olds after the winner, Apple Jackie, was disqualified and moved from first to fourth.

Dervish Dancer, owned by Sukman, returned $49.80, $15.20 and $6.80. Tudor Warrior was moved up from third to second and paid $5.20 and $4.20, and Elmer L. Brown, moved from fourth to third, paid $4.40.

Apple Jackie's time for the half mile was 46 2-5, only 1 1-5 off the track record.

Dervish Dancer grabbed the lead coming out of the gate, with Elmer L. Brown and Apple Jackie in hot pursuit. The three horses bunched up near the rail rounding the turn, and that was where jockey Robert Kotenko, who was aboard Elmer L. Brown justified his claim of four against Apple Jackie. From then on, it was a battle between Dervish Dancer and Apple Jackie.

Jockey Lonnie Ray posted the meeting's first quadruple victory. He rode Mr. Courtell in the first, Young Reaper in the third, Deacon Taylor in the sixth and Exhilarating in the eighth.

The daily double combination of Mr. Courtell in the first and Sweet Reason in the second with Arturo Romero aboard, numbers 3 and 2, paid $200.40.

The crowd of 11,800 wagered $1,048,463.

Thinks Law on Athletes Inevitable

PALM BEACH, Fla. (AP) — Pro football cinged again today at the happenings in pro basketball with commissioner Pete Rozelle of the National Football League foreseeing possible congressional legislation aimed at curbing the signing of college undergraduates.

"I can't speak for what the colleges or Congress might or might not do," said Rozelle, "but I would think there would be some bills in the hopper soon."

Rozelle's latest comments on the world of pro basketball stemmed from the signing by the Memphis Pros of Mississippi sophomore Johnny Neumann for a reported five-year contract in excess of $2 million.

The contract was approved, according to Commissioner Jack Dolph of the American Basketball Association, in light of a California judge's decision in the Spencer Haywood case which said that limiting the signing of players by the pros to college graduates violates anti-trust laws.

Rozelle said earlier in the week that if the Haywood decision were upheld, it could become a problem for pro football since "an adverse decision in one sport could have a ruboff effect on any other."

He also said at the time that the continuation of the signing of undergraduates by pro teams could lead to the destruction of collegiate sports programs. The latest incident obviously has led him to believe colleges will seek relief through Congress.

While they seemed to be spending a good deal of time watching the pro basketball situation, the NFL owners nevertheless took care of their own business Wednesday by considering several rule change proposals.

In the major one, a proposal to have the NFL adopt the old American Football League two-point conversion rule was defeated by a 17-9 vote that owner Lamar Hunt of the Kansas City Chiefs said was decided very much along former league lines.

The owners put off until today a decision on a field goal proposal that would bring the ball back to the line of scrimmage on any attempts from outside the 20-yard line that fail and are not returned. The attempt would be to curb the number of long distance field goal attempts.

Baltimore Orioles American League—East

Frank Robinson

PROSPECTUS: Orioles, despite some cracks on the surface and some erosion under it, still have best team in division. But age is creeping up on them—and so is Boston. The bullpen wasn't the best in the division last season and will need some restocking. But, for this year anyway, it looks as if the Orioles will be a divisional winner, at least.

Boog Powell

PITCHING—Earl Weaver had three 20-game winners last year—Dave McNally, Mike Cuellar and Jim Palmer. They had 54 complete games among them and an aggregate victory total of 68. But search is still on for fourth starter. Pat Dobson, from Padres, could be the answer. If not, Jim Hardin is around for another try. Grant Jackson, from Phils, should help bullpen. Rating: A

CATCHING—Elie Hendricks, who hit a dozen home runs, and Andy Etchebarren, will alternate again. Rating: B

INFIELD—Boog Powell, at first, had big season in 1970. He hit 297, with 114 RBIs and 35 home runs. He was league's Most Valuable Player. Dave Johnson, at second, hit .281. Mark Belanger, at short, hit only 218 and. Jesper time glove, will be pushed by rookie Bobby Grich. At third, Brooks Robinson hit 18 home runs and drove in 94 during the regular season, then owned the World Series. Rating: A

OUTFIELD—Don Buford, in left, hit 272 with 16 homers and 66 RBIs. Frank Robinson, in right, hit 306 with 25 homers and 78 RBIs. But he's 36 and age is factor. Paul Blair in center hit 267 and is strong defensively. Merv Rettenmund (18 homers, 322 average) still trying to break in somewhere. He heads good supporting cast that also includes Tony Crowley and Don Baylor. Rating: B

ROOKIES TO WATCH—Grich could supplant Belanger if he shows he can hit. Pitchers John Montague (22), George Mazan (24) and Mike A. Johnson (23) may stick.

Predicted Finish: 1st in East

Premier U.S. Milers to Meet Head-on

EL PASO, Tex. (AP) — Jim Ryun and Marty Liquori, America's premier milers, will meet in a head-to-head duel next May 22 in the first annual El Paso Invitational track meet it was announced here Wednesday night.

It will mark the first time since Ryun began his comeback 'his year that he will have competed against Liquori.

Creation of the meet, sponsored by the El Paso Amateur Track and Field Association, was disclosed at a press conference Wednesday night.

For Stadium Giants Would Consider Move

TRENTON, N.J. (AP) — The New York Giants football team says it is considering a move to New Jersey if the Cahill administration can produce a major new sports complex in the Hackensack Meadows.

Gov. William T. Cahill announced at a news conference Wednesday he had received a verbal commitment directly from Wellington Mara, president of the Giants, to sign a long-term lease if the state develops a proposed sports complex that could cost from $100 million to $200 million.

In Palm Beach, Fla., where he is attending the National Football League owners' meeting, Mara said, "If the governor can make it possible for us to take better care of more of our fans, we would certainly be prepared to enter into serious discussions about leasing the facility."

"Two things make it attractive. It's been a pressing problem to us that we haven't been able to solicit ticket sales since 1964 and we'd be able to take care of more fans. The thought of a stadium built for football is a tremendous thing for us."

When informed of Mara's remarks, Cahill said he had no reason to back down at all from his own statement.

But Mayor John V. Lindsay of New York contended that the team would not move.

"We are confident that if the city acquires Yankee Stadium and completes its plans for modernization of the stadium, the New York Giants as well as the Yankees will remain in New York City," the mayor said.

Boston Bruins Apparently in a Slump

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Would you believe the Boston Bruins in a slump? Well, the National Hockey League's East Division champions have lost only 12 games all season but two of those 12 have come in their last two games.

Boston dropped a 2-1 decision at Chicago Wednesday night in a pre-playoff clash of divisional champions. That came on the heels of a 7-5 defeat at the hands of Buffalo which halted a 13-game Boston winning streak.

In other NHL action Wednesday, Montreal defeated Philadelphia 5-3, Pittsburgh rapped Detroit 8-2 and Toronto blanked California 6-0.

The Black Hawks beat Boston for the third time this season with Bobby Hull's 44th goal of the season deciding the game in the third period.

Montreal celebrated Jean Beliveau night by thumping Philadelphia. Yvan Cournoyer led the Canadiens' attack with two goals and the start of the game was delayed some 30 minutes by ceremonies honoring Beliveau, the longtime star center and captain of the Canadiens.

Beliveau refused any monetary gifts and contributions totaling more than $150,000 were turned over to a newly created fund for underprivileged youngsters which bears his name.

Defenseman Duane Rupp scored three goals and Jean Pronovost and Keith McCreary added two each in Pittsburgh's victory over Detroit.

The Penguins, still battling for a West playoff berth, have five games left and trail fourth place Philadelphia by six

Spurred by Fans' Booming, Lakers Win

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Apparently spurred on by the booming of their fans the Los Angeles Lakers wiped out a 17-point deficit and beat the Chicago Bulls in the opening of the National Basketball Association Playoffs.

The score was 100-99 as the Lakers took a 1-0 lead in the best-of-7 Western Conference semifinals. In the start of the Eastern Conference semifinals the Philadelphia 76ers walloped the Baltimore Bullets 126-112.

The boogie at the Forum in Los Angeles came near the end of the first half Wednesday night when the Lakers trailed by 15 points at 45-39.

The Lakers, playing without their injured star, Jerry West, fell 17 points behind at 56-39 soon after the start of the second half before executing an about-face.

Led by Jim McMillian, former Columbia star, the Lakers gained the lead at 94-93 on a three-point play by Gail Goodrich. They fell behind again before two free throws by Goodrich wrapped it up for LA.

McMillian scored a career high of 26 points, including 20 in the Lakers' second half rally. Goodrich finished with 24 and Keith Erickson 23. Big Wilt Chamberlain added 18 and grabbed 21 rebounds. Bob Love led Chicago with 24 points.

Behind by 62-61 Philadelphia went on a 13-point burst to go ahead of the Bullets for good at Baltimore. Veteran Hal Greer paced the 76ers with 30 points. Gus Johnson and Kevin Loughery topped the Bullets with 19 each.

Johnson and Wes Unseld played for Baltimore, but were hampered by the injuries that had kept them out of several games. In addition, Earl Monroe of the Bullets suffered bruised ribs and played only 11 minutes.

Chicago plays the Lakers at Los Angeles again on Friday night. Baltimore is at Philadelphia that night.

The champion New York Knicks play their first playoff game today against Atlanta. The other playoff series, Milwaukee vs. San Francisco, starts Saturday in Oakland.

Goalies Jacques Plante and Bernie Parent of Toronto combined to shut out California. Norm Ullman sparked the Leafs with a pair of goals while Dave Keon, Darryl Sittler, Ron Ellis and Brad Selwood were the other marksmen.

Believes San Diego Will Do Better

By JACK STEVENSON
Associated Press Sports Writer
YUMA, Ariz. (AP) — "Overall, I think we will be better than last year," says San Diego Padres' Manager Preston Gomez hopefully. "With competition at most positions."

Going through spring training, only first baseman Nate Colbert, right fielder Ollie Brown and center fielder Clarence Gaston could be assured positions in the batting order.

San Diego's expansion club finished last the National League West a year ago but the 63 victories were 11 more than in the inaugural 1969 season.

"Improvement this year comes in defense mostly," observes Gomez. "I have been impressed with Enzo Hernandez and we also got Don Mason."

Hernandez, rated one of the best shortstops in the minor leagues at Rochester last year, came to San Diego along with Tom Phoebus, Fred Benne and Al Severinsen for Pat Dobson, who won 14 games last season, and Tom Dukes.

After that trade with Baltimore's world champions, the Padres traded with San Francisco for Mason, a reserve infielder with the Giants.

Even with those swaps, Gomez feels the Padres must build through their own organization. He estimated 75 to 80 per cent "of our good ball players are being developed in our own organization."

Gaston proved the big gun for San Diego last year with a .318 average, improving from .230 the previous season. His average led the team and he also has the most RBI, 93; most runs, 92 and most hits, 188. His 29 homers were second only to Colbert's 38.

Gomez expects Bob Barton and Chris Cannizzaro to share the catching assignments while Fred Kendall, listed as a receiver, can also play first base or third base.

Left-handed pitcher Danny Coombs and right-hander Clay Kirby each won 10 games for the Padres last season while Dave Roberts won eight. At one point in the season, Sept. 10-29, Roberts pitched 28 1-3 scoreless innings, including two victories over Atlanta and one over Los Angeles.

Severinsen and Gary Ross are slated for bullpen duty as Gomez must rebuild his relief hurling corps.

Woman May Have Mark for Excellence

NEW YORK (AP) — Ann Haydon Jones, who as a seven-time Wimbledon semifinalist and 1969 champion has played her share of winning tennis, might have a new mark for excellence.

Mrs. Jones, of England, defeated Mrs. Nancy Richey Gunter of San Angelo, Tex., 6-7, 7-6, 6-4 in a grueling 2 hour, 33 minute match in which the first two sets were decided by nine-point, sudden-death tie-breakers.

The match, played in the opening round of the Virginia Slims Invitational Tournament advanced Mrs. Jones to the quarter finals Thursday.

Also advancing to the quarter-finals were: top-seeded Billie Jean King, Long Beach, Calif. defeated Mrs. Carole Graebner New York, 6-2, 6-3; Julie Heldman, New York, defeated Betty Ann Hansen, Santa Monica, Calif. 6-4, 6-0; Kerry Melville, Australia, defeated Kristy Pierson, San Mateo, Calif., 6-4, 6-2.

Other quarter-finalists are: Francoise Durr, France, defeated Karen Krantzke, Australia, 6-4, 6-3; Ceci Martinez, San Francisco, defeated Tony Ann Fretz, Los Angeles, 3-6, 6-1, 6-4; James "Peaches" Bartkowicz, Hamtramck, Mich., defeated Val Ziegenfuss San Diego, 6-1, 6-1; and Rosemary Casals, San Francisco, defeated Judy Tegart Dalton, Australia, 6-4, 6-4.

WORLD'S MOST BEAUTIFUL football match was how it was billed, and that's what it may have been. The teams, Lumley Lovers and Robinson Ravens, were provided by two of London's top model agencies for the charity game at Hurlingham Stadium. Leading boutiques and hairdressers provided uniforms and hair styles. The score? Oh, that. Lovers over Ravens, 3-1.

While Star Is Honored Thieves Loot Home

MONTREAL (AP) — While 17,154 spectators and hockey personalities were honoring Jean Beliveau of the Montreal

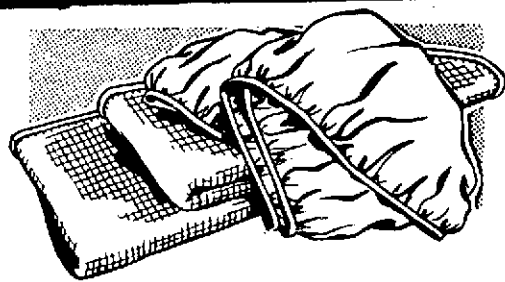

Canadiens at the Forum Wednesday night, thieves took advantage of the occasion to break into his suburban Longueuil home.

Police said first reports indicated it was "a small robbery" with about $500 stolen from the National Hockey League star's home.

Physician in Guatemala

By HELEN HENNESSY
NEA Women's Editor

NEW YORK — (NEA) — The stocky, blond man gaped at the towering buildings in midtown Manhattan. Attache case in hand, he waved with pseudo aplomb as he set out for a televised interview.

Dr. Carroll Behrhorst was in New York to seek help needed for his work among the Cakchikil Maya Indians in Guatemala. And the way had been paved for him by author Edwin Barton who made Behrhorst and his Indians known across the country in his book entitled, "Physician to the Mayas."

Behrhorst, a successful physician in Winfield, Kan., went to Guatemala in 1959 as a medical missionary. To gain the trust of the Indians, he literally became part of the scenery, sitting every day on a park bench, making no overtures unless the children came to him. And it took two months of sitting before he gained even a toe-hold. But once accepted, the Cakchikils let him treat their sick and he became part of their village.

"When my assigned time was up as a missionary of the church, I went back to Kansas," he said, "to see if money could be raised to make it possible to establish a permanent clinic for the Indians. It couldn't. So I decided to try it on my own."

He moved his wife and children to Guatemala City, rolled up his sleeves and went to work in the nearby village of Chimaltenango. With his own money and what little he took in as patient fees (hospital charges are 50 cents a day, including medicines) he established a clinic, hospital and community health and agricultural-nutrition programs.

"When I went to Guatemala in '59 as a medical missionary," Behrhorst reminisced, "the Cakchikils were distrustful of the white man. And we were going about trying to help them in the wrong way."

"Their thinking is so different from ours and until you can think in their terms, you can't identify with them."

When the doctor went back to Guatemala in 1962, he went as a physician and not as a missionary.

"One reason missionaries often fail to make friends of the Indians," he said, "is that the Indian has tremendous dignity and self-respect."

"The very teaching of the organized church makes you debate yourself, start at the bottom, consider yourself a worm who must climb up the ladder. Whereas actually a human being starts in the middle and can go up or down. It's up to him. You must have self love before you can believe you can help others."

On his first trip to Guatemala, Dr. Behrhorst learned that the Indians shunned the free government hospitals because their families couldn't stay there with them and because they didn't want charity. In the Behrhorst hospital, families bring bedding, supply food and help take care of the patient. And the fact that they are permitted to pay, however little, adds to their trust.

Today the Behrhorst Clinic employs many Indians as nurses and medical assistants—all trained by the doctor. He works an 18-hour day but sees his children more often than he did in Kansas. "They're in and out of the clinic all the time," he admitted.

During his first year of practice in Guatemala he saw that the health needs of the Indians ran much deeper than the need for modern medicine. "It isn't right," he said, "to save a baby's life with penicillin and then to see him starve two years later from protein deficiency."

So he brought in an agricultural expert and proceeded to teach the Indians to grow protein-rich food.

His achievements became widely known and he is now being helped by members of the Peace Corps, the American Friends Service Volunteers and medical students who come to help and learn.

"In 1965," said author Barton, who is Director of Student Activities at Columbia University College of Physicians and Surgeons, "I went down there and had to wait four hours to see him to find out if I could get some of our students down to work with him. But if his kids need anything, the patients wait." The clinic now treats over 30,000 patients.

When his park-bench vigil became lonely and long, Behrhorst often doubted the outcome. "Then I would remember how Alfred Schweitzer had to wait for six months to get the first African woman to have her baby in his hospital. And a few months of waiting seemed insignificant."

Millionaire Racketeer Indicted

MIAMI (AP) — A federal grand jury has indicted millionaire racketeer Meyer Lansky on a contempt of court charge after he refused a free trip from his Israeli vacation spot to testify before the panel.

The underworld's financial wizard was charged with failing to answer a subpoena that required him to testify March 10-11 in Miami on alleged skimming of gambling receipts at the Flamingo Hotel in Las Vegas.

Contempt is not covered by the U.S.-Israeli extradition treaty, but Atty. Gen. John N. Mitchell said in Washington bond of $200,000 had been set for Lansky in case he should come into U.S. custody.

Lansky and his wife have been living at the Dan Hotel in Tel Aviv since last summer.

Douglas McMillan, head of the Justice Department's strike force in Miami, said Lansky refused a federal offer of a $974 round-trip air ticket from Israel to testify before the grand jury.

E. David Rosen, attorney for Lansky, said the former Miami Beach resident suffered from ulcers and a heart problem and was not fit to travel. Rosen said his client would submit to a deposition under oath in Israel.

McMillan replied that Lansky was "up and about" enjoying a luxury suit in the Tel Aviv hotel.

The Justice Department said Lansky "had been identified in the grand jury investigation as a participant in a scheme to conceal and distribute untaxed casino revenue from the Flamingo Hotel, Las Vegas, Nev., from 1960 to 1967."

In 1960, Lansky set up the $10.5 million sale of the Flamingo by Albert Parvin and Associates and was paid a $200,000 fee for his activities as middleman.

Parvin used his share of the proceeds from the hotel sale to set up the Albert Parvin Foundation, with Supreme Court Justice William O. Douglas serving as its $12,000-a-year president from 1960 until he resigned the foundation post in 1969.

Douglas has denied any knowledge of Lansky's role in the hotel sale.

Casey Heads for Senate Confirmation

WASHINGTON (AP) — William J. Casey, a New York tax lawyer whose nomination as chairman of the Securities and Exchange Commission brought on questions about his business affairs, headed for an easy confirmation today by the Senate.

Casey's major opponent, Sen. William Proxmire, D-Wis., had said before today's scheduled vote he doubted there would be any serious effort to block the nomination.

The Senate Banking Committee approved Casey's nomination in early February, then reaffirmed its action March 9 after he was called back at Proxmire's insistence to answer more questions about past business dealings and lawsuits. But the Wisconsin Democrat entered a minority committee report which referred to Casey as a wheeler-dealer and asserted "it is an affront to the 31 million members of the investing public for President Nixon to propose such a man for chairmanship of the SEC."

Casey, backed fully by the White House after questions were raised about his nomination, told the committee lawsuits in which he was involved were simply a result of business disagreements normal in the career of an active lawyer and businessman.

the representatives it was possible the General Assembly could wind up its affairs by next Wednesday if the proposed revenue stabilization act is ready for introduction by Saturday.

Brandon suggested that the House could save one legislative day next week by naming 51 representatives, the minimum to constitute a legal quorum, to hold a session Saturday solely to permit the introduction of the proposal at that time.

In other legislative action Wednesday:

— The Senate adopted an amendment by Sen. Guy H. "Mutt" Jones of Conway to add $1.5 million over the coming biennium for vocational education in high schools.

— The House deleted the contingency appropriation for the state penitentiary that had been placed in the proposed governor's emergency fund and voted to increase the emergency fund itself from $300,000 to $400,000 in each of the next two fiscal years. No final action was taken on the measure.

Jones' amendment to the public school education appropriation bill was adopted over the objections of Sen. Robert Harvey of Swift. Harvey said he favored additional vocational-technical education in the schools, but that the funding of the program had not been taken into consideration when the amendment was proposed. He wondered how the increase would be financed.

The public education appropriation before the amendment provided $1.1 million in each of the fiscal years for vocational-technical and adult education in public schools. Jones' amendment raised the totals to $1,850,000 in each fiscal year.

The bill itself is pending final action by the Senate.

The Senate approved 26 other appropriation bills, but bypassed consideration of the measure to appropriate money for operations of the Department of Correction during the next two fiscal years. The appropriation calls for $2,128,622 in the first year and $2.5 million in the second year, including income from the penitentiary farming operations.

Bumpers had requested $386,000 more in the first year and $402,791 more in the second year, but under a compromise worked out before the session began, it had been agreed to put the additional in the governor's emergency fund for use only if it were needed.

It was the additional money that was deleted from the emergency fund by the House action Wednesday. The House twice had rejected the emergency fund bill because of opposition to the inclusion of the prison money.

The House voted 55-19 to adopt an amendment by Rep. Jim Linder of West Helena to drop the prison money from the emergency fund. It approved 66-14 Linder's amendment increasing the emergency fund itself to $400,000 a year.

Rep. Frank Henslee of Pine Bluff asked Linder if he was attempting to increase the regular emergency appropriation to create a "slush fund" to provide the contingency money for the prisons anyway.

Linder said his purpose was to provide enough money in the fund not only to meet emergencies but also to make sure that the governor would have the funds to take advantage of possible new federal programs requiring state matching. He said, however, that nothing would prevent the governor from using part of the funds to meet penitentiary emergencies.

The House approved 92-1 a bill by Sen. Max Howell of Little Rock reimbursing three persons for their legal expenses in defending themselves against charges that they violated the civil rights of inmates during their employment at the penitentiary.

The bill would appropriate $3,367 to Gary Haydis, $1,515 to G. W. Thompson and $1,500 to Larry E. Hudson. Haydis was acquitted and indictments against Thompson and Hudson were dropped. Hudson is the only one of the three still employed in the prison system.

The House approved a Senate bill 69-8 that would establish minimum standards to be followed by the state Health Department in regulating septic tank installation and inspection.

Four Vow No Part in Car Stealing

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — Two businessmen and two Illinois railroad executives have told a federal grand jury they had nothing to do with the ascertained disappearance of 277 freight cars owned by the Penn Central railroad.

U.S. Atty. Louis Bechtel charged last week that the Penn Central cars were switched over the past 14 months to the tracks of the 15-mile-long LaSalle & Bureau County Railroad in Illinois, 100 miles southwest of Chicago.

"It's a fantastic complex case of mistaken identity," said Ronald Brewlow, Wayne, N.J., lawyer for the two businessmen, after their grand jury appearance Wednesday.

Breslow represents Joseph C. Bonanno and Anthony Crisafi Jr., officers of Magna Earth, Inc., a freight car repair concern. Bonanno is president of the firm and also president and principal stockholder of Diversified Properties, Inc., of Wayne.

According to the two men, the Diversified company contracted last year to purchase 466 freight cars leased by Equitable Life Assurance Society of the United States to the Penn Central. The purchase was made after the lease with Penn Central expired, Breslow said, and Equitable received $1,000 for each car.

Lawyers for the Task Force on Organized Crime, which is conducting the government investigation with the help of the FBI, said the cars were repainted and given LaSalle markings by Magna Earth and Diversified Properties. Records of both firms were seized last week by federal agents.

"We have done nothing unlawful, we have stolen nothing," said Bonanno, of Essex Falls, N.J.

"We are bona fide businessmen and we are being hurt by these insinuations," said Crisafi, of Utica, Ill.

Joseph Cinotto Jr., head of LaSalle and Bureau County, said his railroad has only two locomotives and 31 freight cars. His father, the line's former traffic manager, was the fourth witness.

Escapee Is Captured in Oklahoma

POTEAU, Okla. (AP) — William E. Porter, 42, of Little Rock, who escaped Sunday night from Cummins Prison Farm, was arrested near here Wednesday night following a high speed auto chase.

LeFlore County officials said Porter was apprehended when he wrecked a car that had been reported stolen in Louisiana. He was armed with a .25-caliber pistol, officers said, but offered no resistance.

Porter was serving a 21-year sentence from Sebastian County for burglary and grand larceny. He was being held in the LeFlore County jail.

Discusses Juveniles

LARRY PATTERSON

Kiwanian Larry Patterson was the guest speaker at this week's meeting of the Kiwanis Club, speaking on the subject of the Hempstead County Juvenile Court.

Until a short time ago the County Judge was the Juvenile Court, a position he still holds. However, by law he now has the assistance of a Referee, the position held by Mr. Patterson.

The Juvenile Court is not a court in the usual sense, but is an informal hearing for juvenile offenders with the legal authority to mete out punishment fitting the offense. An offender up to age seventeen may be paroled to a parent or other interested individual or they may be sent to one of the Arkansas Industrial Schools for terms from a few weeks to attaining age eighteen.

The Juvenile Court is now handling as many cases in two or three months as were formerly handled in a year. In 1969 only eighteen cases were handled. The cases already handled this year far exceeds that number.

There are probably several reasons for this increase, one being indifference on the part of parents to the needs of their younger children. A well adjusted home life where love, compassion, concern, sympathy, and understanding exist doesn't promote juvenile problems. Too often perhaps a parent cannot say assuredly what their children are doing at a given time.

Mr. Patterson stated the number one problem he has faced in the Juvenile Court is the incorrigibility problem, a loss of respect for any kind of authority. Contrary to what some may think, of the cases handled by the Juvenile Court so far this year, two thirds of the offenders have been white youths, and one third have been from what could be called middle class families.

Probably the number two problem faced by the Juvenile Court is the drug problem, everything from sniffing glue to a very few cases of hard drugs. "In Hope and Hempstead County the drug problem has not reached epidemic proportions, but it could very easily," said Mr. Patterson.

Guests at Tuesday's meeting were Paul Hamilton of Borger, Texas, brother of Kiwanian K. G. Hamilton, Kiwanian Merrill Moore of the Downtown Kiwanis Club of Nashville, Tennessee, and Key Clubbers Stan James, Eddie White, Wade Harris, and Mike Downs.

Filibuster Blocks Senate Banking Bill

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — A filibuster by Sen. Ben Allen of Little Rock blocked Senate consideration Wednesday of a bill to bar nonpar banking in the state.

A day earlier a threatened filibuster by Allen had led the bill's sponsor, Sen. George Locke of Hamburg, to temporarily withdraw the bill from consideration.

The Senate voted Wednesday, however, to make the measure a special order of business following the morning hour Thursday.

Nonpar banks levy a charge when cashing checks written on accounts in other banks. The charge is deducted from the amount of the check. There are 70 nonpar banks in Arkansas.

The bill would limit the charge to five cents per $100 of the face amount of the check after Dec. 31 of this year and would require that after Jan. 1, 1973, checks would be cashed without charge for the full face value by all banks chartered under state law.

Allen is a member of the board of a nonpar bank at Marshall in Searcy County. He told the Senate that he knew of several banks whose small profits would become losses without nonpar banking.

Blackwell said he had not given up hope for a bond issue. He said he was optimistic that the people in the state would take a second look at the possibilities of a bond issue.

THE FAMILY LAWYER

Bruised Feelings

"It's a boy," said the absent-minded doctor to the happy parents.

But it happened to be a girl. The following morning, the doctor sheepishly acknowledged his mistake. However, the parents were so unnerved by this turn of events that they determined to sue him for damages.

At the trial, the doctor protested:

"I admit I made a careless statement. But I can't see any basis for a lawsuit. After all, I didn't really do them any harm."

"Not physically," countered the parents, "but he certainly did jolt us mentally. We want compensation for our mental anguish."

Nevertheless, the court sided with the doctor and dismissed the claim. The court said mere bruised feelings, not inflicted on purpose, are insufficient grounds for collecting damages.

Most courts agree. They fear that with no physical injuries to be checked and measured, it is too easy for a claimant to exaggerate his woes.

They also fear they might be flooded by all sorts of vague claims. In another case, a girl demanded damages for hurt feelings when she was erroneously left out of a beauty contest. But again, the court decided her claim was too "iffy" to be allowed.

"To attempt to fix damages for such suffering," said one judge, "would be to enter the realm of speculation."

On the other hand, some courts have granted damages in unusually delicate situations, when feelings are most likely to be tender. For example:

A telegram to a businessman, informing him that his mother had died, was delivered three days late — after her funeral. Doubly distressed, the man sued the telegraph company for its negligence.

And, even though he had suffered only mental anguish, the court held the company liable. The judge said:

"The mind is no less a part of the person than the body, and the suffering of the former are sometimes more acute than those of the latter."

New Judge for Angela Davis Case

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — A former prosecutor and one-time lobbyist for law enforcement agencies is the new presiding judge in the case of black militant Angela Davis and Russell Magee, accused in a courthouse escape try where four men died.

"I will try to do a workmanlike and fair job," Superior Court Judge Alan A. Lindsay said Tuesday after his appointment by California Supreme Court Chief Justice Donald Wright.

Appointments by Bumpers Affirmed

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — The Arkansas Senate Tuesday confirmed the 14 of Gov. Dale Bumpers appointments including the one of Dr. Roger Bost as the director of the Department of Social and Rehabilitation Services.

The department is a combination of the Welfare Department and other rehabilitative agencies.

Also approved by the Senate was the reappointment of William F. Sherman of Little Rock as state Securities Commissioner and Ovid Switzer of Crossett to the Parks, Recreation and Travel Commission.

The appointment of Jim Hannah of Searcy was approved for a one-year term on the Board of Pardons and Pardoners and Flave Carpenter of Arkadelphia was confirmed for a nine-year term on the Parks Commission.

The other appointments were: Henry Ketcher of North Little Rock for an 11-year term and Coy Theobau of Rings, A 10-year term, both in the Department of Parks and Tourism: Joe Woodward of Magnolia on the Commerce Commission for a five-year term; James W. Wells of Benton for a six-year term on the Pollution Control Board; Thomas Hall of Delaplaine for a six-year term on the Tuberculosis Sanatorium Board; Henry O. Zinke of Fayetteville for a five-year term on the Healing Arts Board; Don Butler of West Memphis for a three-year term on the Welfare Board; Thomas C. Mueller of Fort Smith for a six-year term on the Oil and Gas Commission; Dr. W. W. Workman of Blytheville for a

Mayor Says Indictment Political

By JAMES C. LAGIER Associated Press Writer SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — Mayor Joseph Alioto of San Francisco says a federal grand jury indictment charging him with conspiring to bribe a Washington State official is politically motivated and "a 14-karat fake."

"I have every confidence we're going to be vindicated in court because there won't be any star chamber proceedings in court. There will be a judicial proceeding," Alioto told 100 placard-waving supporters Tuesday night.

Alioto and three former Washington State officials were indicted Tuesday in Seattle in an alleged bribe conspiracy involving $2.3 million in legal fees.

Charged with Alioto were former Washington State Atty. Gen. John J. O'Connell; former Asst. Atty. Gen. George K. Faller, and John G. McCutcheon, a former prosecuting attorney in Pierce County, Wash.

"It's just a 14-karat fake. This is a shared fee for shared work and if this can constitute a bribe or an attempted bribe or using the mail to bribe, then every Republican who has taken a referral fee in the Senate—and almost all of them have—ought to be indicted too."

Alioto has been mayor since Jan. 8, 1968. He nominated Hubert H. Humphrey for president at the 1968 Democratic National Convention.

The indictment involves the handling by Alioto between 1962 and 1967 of overcharge claims

Thursday, March 25, 1971 by 15 municipal districts and public utilities districts in the State of Washington against major electrical equipment manufacturers.

Alioto originally had been hired to represent the districts on a contingency fee with a $1 million limit, but his fee was raised to 15 per cent of the total final settlements after he negotiated $16.2 million in refunds.

The indictment said that in return for removal of the fee ceiling, Alioto agreed to pay O'Connell and Faller 50 per cent of all the fees he received in excess of $1 million.

Work-Study Experience Program Here Is Showing Results

Mrs. Linda Stewart's Classroom at Hope High School has an interior appearance unlike any other room in the school.

On one day her room may look like a highway sign shop with replicas of stop, yield, railroad crossing signs adorning the walls. On another day, the room may be decorated with pictures of women's and men's fashions, or it may look like any other school classroom with the blackboards whitened with chalk writing.

Whatever the motif for a particular day, it serves a useful purpose, just as the big mirror that hangs at the back of the room does.

Mrs. Stewart is the teacher-coordinator of the Hope School District's work-study experience program. The program is a cooperative endeavor involving the School District, the Arkansas Rehabilitation Service, and the State Department of Education's Special Education Division.

The program is for students who are classified as under achievers.

There are 15 students in Mrs. Stewart's class. Many of them didn't have a thorough understanding of traffic signs until recently when she invited an Arkansas State Police trooper to explain highway and road safety to the class.

The trooper's visit led to the posting of pictures of highway signs around the room.

Some of the students must constantly be reminded that good grooming habits are important to securing and keeping employment. That is the reason for the mirror and makeup table, also the pictures of fashionable clothing.

The Hope District has had a work-study experience program since October 1969. Mrs. Stewart is the second person to hold the position of teacher-coordinator. The first one resigned after almost a year's work in the program.

Mrs. Stewart is qualified for the position. She has a master's degree in special education from Henderson State College, and has the attitude that the student enrolled in work-study experience needs closer attention than other students.

The work-study experience program enables the student to attend class during the morning of each school day, and in the afternoon he reports to an on-the-job training site for vocational training. An example is James Hastings who is receiving his training from R.W. Huddleston, a member of the Hope School Board and a firm believer in the objectives of the work-study program.

James receives individualized job instruction from Huddleston at Huddleston's Laha Cleaners. James receives compensation during the training phase of his personal program.

Huddleston has provided on-the-job training for several students enrolled in work-study experience. Another student currently works at The City Cleaners.

Other students from Mrs. Stewart's class are learning to work in jobs such as stock handler and custodial work at a variety store, school cafeteria training work, working in the principal's office.

The training sites are lined up through the efforts of Mrs. Stewart and Leo G. Giles, special education counselor for the Rehabilitation Service. Giles works closely with Mrs. Stewart and school district officers in counseling with the work-study experience students and in determining whether they are in need of additional rehabilitation services.

Of the 15 students currently enrolled in the program, six will complete their school work in May. Their places in the program will be filled by students from Yerger Junior High School, who have been identified through psychological testing as slow learners and in need of assistance.

Hope School District officers concede that the work-study experience program is still in the development stage. One immediate goal is to acquaint the business community with the program and its objectives in order to locate additional on-the-job training sites within the city.

As in most cases involving work-study experience programs, the student who completes his studies is provided with employment by the businessman who has enabled him to receive training. The student usually does so well during training that the employer puts him on the payroll as a full time employee after the

James Hastings, left, a student in Hope's work-study experience program, is learning the dry cleaning trade under the watchful eye of R.W. Huddleston, owner of Laha Cleaners. Huddleston is a member of the Hope School Board and a supporter of the work-study experience program, which enables students to receive on-the-job training while completing their school work.

Jimmy Smith, center, a student in the Hope work-study experience program, proudly shows the curtains he and other members of his class made for their classroom student has completed his schooling.

The Hope District program is one of 22 work-study experience programs in Arkansas. Some of the others are located at Texarkana, Hot Springs, Little Rock, North Little Rock, Pine Bluff, Fort Smith and Fayetteville.

Man Killed Trying to Elude Sheriff

AUGUSTA, Ark. (AP) — One man was killed and another injured Wednesday night during a chase by Woodruff County

Sheriff Ed Hall, who suspected the victim's car was stolen.

The victim was identified as David Forrest Love, 22, of Memphis, the driver of the car and Johnny Ransom, 18, of Augusta.

Police said Woodruff attempted to pull the car over and Love tried to elude the sheriff. The car ran into an embankment at a dead end street in Augusta.

State Police said this morning that the car, with Tennessee license plates, had been stolen.

Sees $400,000 Savings New Act Provision

STUTTGART, Ark. (AP) — Prosecutor Sam Weems of the 17th Judicial District said Wednesday that the state may save as much as $400,000 a month under a bill signed Tuesday by Gov. Dale Bumpers.

The measure, Act 372, provides that fines can be assessed against a father who does not support his family if the family receives aid for dependent children from the Welfare Department.

The law was drafted by Weems and sponsored by Rep. John Bethell of Des Arc and Sens. Robert Harvey of Swifton and Knox Nelson of Pine Bluff.

Weems said he expected the law would reduce by 25 per cent the number of families receiving AFDC.

There were 17,113 AFDC cases in Arkansas during February, Weems said, and the figure represents 47,892 children. A total of $1,587,620 was paid. Payments ranged from $81 per month for a mother with one child to $141 if she has seven.
